THE LITURGY OF THE WORD (All Sit)

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy 8:2-3.14-16.

Moses spoke to the people, saying, “You shall remember all the way which the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know; that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but that man lives by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD. “And you shall remember the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, with its fiery serpents and scorpions and thirsty ground where there was no water, who brought you water out of the flinty rock, who fed you in the wilderness with manna which your fathers did not know.”

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord!

1. O Jerusalem, glorify the LORD! O Sion, praise your God! He has strengthened the bars of your gates; he has blessed your children within you. R

2. He established peace on your borders; he gives you your fill of finest wheat. He sends out his word to the earth, and swiftly runs his command. R

3. He reveals his word to Jacob; to Israel, his decrees and judgements. He has not dealt thus with other nations; he has not taught them his judgements. R

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to Corinthians 11:23-26.

Brethren: The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

The Word of the Lord

SEQUENCE

Behold, the bread of angels is become the pilgrim's food; truly it is bread for the sons, and is not to be cast to dogs.

It was prefigured in type when Isaac was brought as an offering, when a lamb was appointed for the Pasch and when manna was given to the Jews of old.

Jesus, good shepherd and true bread, have mercy on us; feed us and guard us. Grant that we find happiness in the land of the living.

You know all things, can do all things, and feed us here on earth. Make us your guests in heaven, co-heirs with you and companions of heaven's citizens. Amen. Alleluia.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (All Stand)

I am the living bread which came down from heaven, says the Lord; if anyone eats this bread he will live forever.

GOSPEL READING

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John 6:51-58.

At that time: Jesus said to the crowds of the Jews, “I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh." The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats me will live because of me. This is the bread which came down from heaven, not such as the fathers ate and died; he who eats this bread will live forever."

The Gospel of the Lord

CREED (All Stand)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: Brothers and Sisters, As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, let us turn to God our Father with confidence. 1. As we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, we give thanks for the gift of the Holy Eucharist, Christ's Body and Blood given for our salvation. May our sharing in this sacred mystery deepen our faith, strengthen our union with Christ, and inspire us to love and serve one another generously.

We pray to the Lord

2. We pray for the Church, the living Body of Christ. May the Holy Spirit strengthen the unity of all Christians and help us bear witness to God's love through lives of faith and service.

We pray to the Lord

3. As we celebrate Christ's abiding presence among us, we pray for all who honour Him through their faithful commitment to the Apostolate of Eucharistic Adoration. May their devotion inspire others to draw closer to the Lord in prayer and reverence.

We pray to the Lord

We pray to the Lord

PART TWO

THE CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

The Procession is a venerable Church tradition, it is a Profession of Faith: both affirming and defining our faith “in Jesus Christ, alive and truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist.” It is a public statement of what we believe. The sacrament of the Lord’s Body and Blood always “goes above and beyond the walls of our churches.”

The procession joins between what we do inside the church and what we do outside. During the procession we immerse Christ in the daily routine of our lives so that he may walk where we walk and live where we live. Pope Benedict declared, The procession represents an immense and public blessing for our city. Processing together in prayer with the Blessed Sacrament is an act that break open our faith and our lives as a sign of Christ’s love for the whole world.

Order of the Procession:

1. Cross and Candle Bearer

2. Altar Servers

3. Flower Girls

4. Thurifers(s) and Boat Bearer

5. Carriage with Celebrant with the Blessed Sacrament

6. Communion Ministers

7. Choir

8. Congregation.

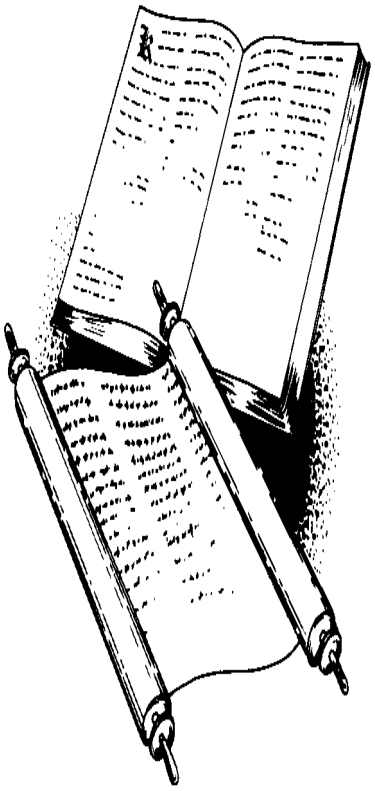
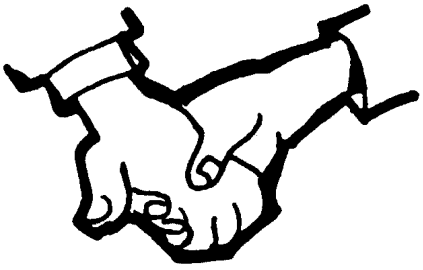
Hymn: CHB 247

1. Sweet sacrament divine,
Hid in your earthly home,
Lo! Round your lowly shrine,
With suppliant heart s we come,
Jesus, to you our voice we raise,
In songs of love and heartfelt praise,
Sweet Sacrament divine. (2x)



2. Sweet Sacrament of peace,
Dear home of every heart,
Where restless yearnings cease,
And sorrows all depart,
There in your ear, all trustfully,
We tell our tale of misery,
Sweet sacrament divine. (2x)

3. Sweet Sacrament of rest,
Ark from the ocean's roar,
Within your shelter blest,
Soon may we reach the shore.
Save, us for still the tempest raves;
Save, lest we sink beneath the waves;
Sweet Sacrament of rest. (2x)



4. Sweet Sacrament divine,
Earth's light and jubilee,
In your far depths do shine,

Your Godhead's majesty,
Sweet light so shine on us we pray,
That earthly joys may fade away,
Sweet Sacrament divine. (2x)

I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if anyone eats this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh. The Gospel of the Lord.

Reader: Holy Gospel according to Mark.

All: Glory To You, O Lord.

Jesus saw a great throng, and He had compassion on them for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things. Then He commanded them all to sit down in groups, by hundreds and by fifties. And taking five loaves and two fish He looked up to heaven and blessed and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples to set before the people; and He divided the two fish among them all. And they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. And those who ate the loaves were five thousand men. The Gospel of the Lord.

Hymn No. (CHB 249)

1. Crown him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne;

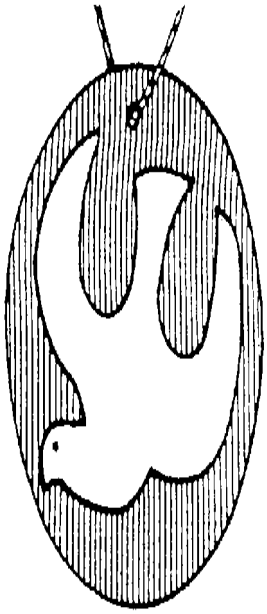
Awake, my soul, and sing,
Of him who died for you,
And hail him as your matchless King,
Through all eternity.

2. Crown him the Virgin's Son,
The God incarnate born,
Whose arm those crimson trophies won,
Which now his brow adorn;
Fruit of the Mystic rose,
As of that rose the stem;
The root, whence mercy ever flows,
The Babe of Bethlehem.



3. Crown him the Lord of heaven,
One with the Father known,
And the best Spirit through him given,
From yonder triune throne,
All hail, Redeemer hail,
For you have died for me
Your praise shall never, never fail,
Throughout eternity.

All: Glory To You, O Lord

Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to His disciples and said, "Take and eat; this is my body." And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks He gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it all of You; for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. Hymn (CHB. No. 259)

1. What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and grief to bear,
what a privilege to carry,
Everything to God in prayer!
Oh, what peace we often forfeit!
Oh, what needless pain we bear!
All because we do not carry,
Everything to God in prayer.

2. Have we trials and temptation?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged;
Take it to the Lord in prayer!
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrow share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

3. Are we weak and heavy-laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Jesus only is our refuge,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do your friends despise, forsake you?
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
In his arms He’ll take and shield you,
You will find a solace there.
